

Axios Twin Cities Weekender

Enter your email address

Subscribe →

May 18, 2023

Audrey Kennedy, Maxwell Millington

Hey, Thursday!

- It's going to be a beautiful weekend! Take advantage of the sunshine with the help of our can't-miss events guide.

Today's newsletter is 749 words — a 3-minute read.

1 big thing: 🧑🎨 Three days of art-fueled fun

Skyline Mini Golf in 2022. Photo: Carina Lofgren/Walker Art Center

More than 1,000 artists will take over 70 Northeast Minneapolis galleries, businesses and breweries tomorrow through Sunday for Art-A-Whirl, the self-proclaimed largest open studio tour in the country.

- The annual celebration of local art is free and open to the public. Visitors can explore studios, shop and meet artists, listen to live music and check out local restaurants.
- Indeed Brewing's music festival Whirlygig also runs all weekend, or you can watch live car crushing at 4pm Saturday at auto repair shop Turbo Tim's.

 Tip: Avoid a parking battle by taking the free Art-A-Whirl trolley, which loops through the Northeast Minneapolis Arts District every 30 minutes.

- Metro Transit is also offering free rides all weekend.

More weekend fun:

😊 Eat your way through the Asian Street Food Night Market in Maplewood tomorrow and Saturday. The all-day event also features live music, local artists, a talent show and beer garden. Free entry

👦 Minnesota Children's Museum's new exhibit "Emotions at Play with Pixar's 'Inside Out'" opens Saturday. Expect interactive activities that teach kids about the film's five featured emotions: joy, sadness, anger, disgust and fear. $15+

🗣️ Celebrate and learn more about Dakota culture at Dakhóta Omníčiyé at Fort Snelling on Saturday, hosted by the Minnesota Historical Society.

- The all-day event includes hands-on workshops, speakers, book readings and a community dinner. $12, free for Native community members

👁️ Shop taxidermy, funeral collectibles, haunted antiques and more at the Oddities & Curiosities Expo at the Minneapolis Convention Center on Saturday. $10 advance, $15 day-of

💕 Autism, mental health and disability nonprofit Fraser has organized a sensory-friendly festival in St. Paul on Saturday with inclusive activities for those with sensory processing difficulties. Free

🍷 Stillwater Flea & Crafter Market returns for the season Saturday–Sunday with about 200 vendors at the Washington County Fairgrounds. Free entry

2. ▶ Streaming guide

"White Men Can't Jump." Photo: Peter Iovino/20th Century Studios

We've got "Ant-Man," a '90s movie remake and a heap of documentaries in this week's guide.

- Here's a look at what's coming to streaming services this weekend.

Apple TV+

"High Desert": A new dark comedy series starring Patricia Arquette and Brad Garrett about a drug addict who decides to start a new life after the death of her mother. Available now.

Disney+

Scott Lang and Hope van Dyne's entire family into the Quantum Realm. Available now.

HBO Max

- "Love to Love You, Donna Summer": A new documentary about the legendary disco artist Donna Summer takes an in-depth look at the singer's professional and personal life. Watch never-before-seen home videos showing Summer's life offstage. Available Saturday.

Hulu

- "Queenmaker: The Making of an It Girl": "Queenmaker" documents the socialite era of the 2000s, when rich young women were trying to be the next Paris Hilton. One blog stood out for praising women who were ridiculed by mainstream media. This documentary uncovers the story behind this blog and its unlikely author. Available now.
- "White Men Can't Jump": Sinqua Walls and rapper Jack Harlow star in this retelling of the 1992 classic film about LA streetball hustling culture. Available tomorrow.

Netflix

the modern world of labor in America and dares to ask why people go to work. Available now.

- "McGregor Forever": An all-access docuseries about the life and career of one of the UFC's most iconic figures. Available now.
- "XO, Kitty": If you couldn't get enough of her in "To All the Boys I've Loved Before" and its sequels, "XO, Kitty" follows Lara Jean's little sister (Kitty) as she goes on her own journey to find love. Available now.
- "Selling Sunset": The Oppenheim Group's top realtors return for a sixth season to sell more houses and throw more shade. Available tomorrow.

Paramount+

- "The Family Stallone": Hollywood icon Sylvester Stallone brings cameras inside his home for a new reality series starring himself, his wife and their three daughters. Available now.

Peacock

- "Rainn Wilson and the Geography of Bliss": Known for playing Dwight in "The Office," Rainn Wilson hosts a new show about the happiest and unhappiest societies on the planet. Available now.

- Catch up quick: "Air: A Story of Greatness" is now available to stream. Starring Matt Damon, Ben Affleck, Chris Tucker and Viola Davis, Air tells the story of the birth of Michael Jordan's iconic sneaker line.

 Audrey is planning her Art-A-Whirl route.

 Maxwell is eager to check out Jack Harlow's acting chops in "White Men Can't Jump."

Edited by Ashley May and copy edited by Egan Millard.

News worthy of your time.

Download the app →

About

- About Axios
- Advertise with us
- Careers
- Events
- Axios on HBO
- Axios HQ
- Privacy and terms
- Online tracking choices

 Your Privacy Choices

Subscribe

- Axios newsletters
- Axios Pro
- Axios app
- Axios podcasts
- Courses
- Earn Axios rewards

