REJUV-A-WAFERS

Plant-based and nutrient dense, Rejuv-A-Wafers support your health's overall health. The wafers contain chlorella for digestive and immune health along with a unique blend of vitamins, minerals, nucleic acids and other revitalizing ingredients such as Vitamin D and iron. Plus, Rejuv-A-Wafers are enriched with eleuthero root extract, sun eleuthero, which is made from an adaptogenic herb. Adding Rejuv-A-Wafers to your pet's daily diet can help support your pet's natural detoxification process, protect against harmful elements and help your pet maintain healthy skin and coat.
